Pacific Coast Archaeological Society Quarterly

The Pacific Coast Archaeological Society Quarterly is a publication of the Pacific Coast Archaeological Society (PCAS), which was organized in 1961. PCAS is an avocational group originally founded to study and to preserve the anthropological and archaeological history of the original inhabitants of Orange County, California, and adjacent areas. The Publications Committee invites the submittal of original contributions dealing with regional history and prehistory. Although PCAS is especially interested in reports which shed further light on the early inhabitants of coastal southern California, it is always interested in reports on the wider Pacific Coast region.

Information about subscriptions to the Pacific Coast Archaeological Society Quarterly and the PCAS Newsletter is available online at www.pcas.org. Back issues of the Pacific Coast Archaeological Society Quarterly are available. An index to Volumes 1 through 40 is available as Volume 40, Numbers 3 & 4. This searchable index is online at www.pcas.org. Three Occasional Papers, on Catalina Island, Mexican Majolica, and the Peralta Adobe, have also been published by PCAS. To place an order, receive information about the Pacific Coast Archaeological Society, or submit an article for publication, email publications@pcas.org or write: Pacific Coast Archaeological Society, P.O. Box 10926, Costa Mesa, California, 92627. Additional information is available at www.pcas.org. PCAS is not responsible for delivery of publications to subscribers who have not furnished a timely change of address.

Recent issues of the Pacific Coast Archaeological Society Quarterly are available at www.pcas.org and can be downloaded and viewed, but not printed. Articles appearing in the Pacific Coast Archaeological Society Quarterly are abstracted in Historical Abstracts and America: History and Life. ## About the Authors

Robert S. Brown received a BA in anthropology at California State University, Long Beach. He worked as a consultant for various CRM firms and also operated a contracting business in a nonrelated field, from which he is now retired. In addition to articles published elsewhere, he has coauthored four previous papers in the PCAS Quarterly and was Corresponding Editor of the Quarterly from 1990 to 1991. He is currently working on private research projects and compiling reports.

T. A. Freeman worked as a lab technician and technical writer for southern California based consulting firms since the mid-1980s. He served as Arts Editor for the PCAS Quarterly between 1990 and 1991. Mr. Freeman is a freelance writer of science fact articles and commentaries. His numerous publications have explored discoveries in archaeology, as well as repatriation and preservation issues.

Henry Koerper, Ph.D., received a BA (1965) and an MA (1968) from UC Davis, and he earned a Ph.D. in anthropology at UC Riverside in 1981. His varied employments have included: CDF firefighter; USFS fire suppression field and laboratory researcher; California Army National Guard explosives technician; archaeological field excavator (e.g., Old Sacramento Project, Prescott College Black Mesa Project); Peace Corps teacher and athletic coach (Voi Harambee High School, Kenya); college anthropology professor (Chapman College [5 years] and Cypress Community College [30 years]); and archaeological consultant to several southern California CRM firms. Semi-retirement allows Dr. Koerper time to help produce the PCAS Quarterly.

Judith F. Porcasi, Ph.D., received her doctorate from the University of Leicester School of Archaeology and Ancient History (UK) in 2008. She also holds an MS in archaeology from California State University, Northridge, and an Archaeology Certificate from UCLA. With a specialization in zooarchaeology, particularly as related to California coastal archaeofaunas, she has been working for more than 20 years in the Zooarchaeology Laboratory of the Cotsen Institute of Archaeology at UCLA and has supported numerous CRM projects as an independent contractor. She has authored numerous articles relating to mammals, birds, and fish from coastal and Channel Island sites and is currently supporting the ongoing UCLA Pimu Catalina Island Archaeology Project.
